Bonfils-Stanton Foundation Elects New Trustee

(Denver, CO – October 25, 2011) At its annual meeting, the Trustees of the Bonfils-Stanton Foundation elected Denise M. O’Leary to its Board.

Denise O’Leary is a private investor in early stage technology companies and serves on several large corporate and nonprofit boards. She is currently a director of Calpine Corporation; Medtronic, Inc.; and US Airways, Inc. Her nonprofit board service includes the Corporation for Supportive Housing, where she is the Board Chair; Lucile Packard Children’s Hospital at Stanford; and Stanford Hospital and Clinics. She received a BS in Industrial Engineering from Stanford University and an MBA from Harvard University’s Graduate School of Business Administration. Ms. O’Leary moved to the Denver area in 2009 and resides in Cherry Hills Village with her husband, Kent Thiry.

The Bonfils-Stanton Foundation, a Denver-based private foundation, invests in people, organizations, and ideas that elevate and enrich our community. Its grantmaking focuses on the arts, as a defining element of Denver’s identity and its future. Its awards and fellowship programs celebrate excellence, of distinguished Coloradans and of promising nonprofit leaders. Since its founding, the Foundation has distributed over $50 million in charitable contributions. More information is available at www.bonfils-stanton.org
