

Colorado's Fiscal Future

Join us for a discussion about the state's fiscal situation, the role of government and taxation and the potential impact of three initiatives on the fall ballot. Pollster Floyd Ciruli will help mix it up with Wade Buchanan, president of The Bell Policy Center and Jon Caldara, president of the Independence Institute.

Wednesday, April 7, 2010

11:30 to 1:30 p.m.

► Schlessman Hall • Denver Art Museum • 100 W 14th Ave Pkwy Denver ◀

Featured Guests:

Wade Buchanan, president | The Bell Policy Center

Jon Caldara, president | Independence Institute

Floyd Ciruli, founder | Ciruli Associates

----- cut along the dotted line -----

REGISTRATION FORM

Register online at www.coloradofunders.org or by submitting the form below.

Colorado's Fiscal Future - April 7, 2010 CAF Member Program

What question(s) do you have for the presenters?

Thank you for registering by Thursday, April 1

Organization: _____

Attendees:

Entrée Selection

Veg. Gluten-Free

Veg. Gluten-Free

Veg. Gluten-Free

Veg. Gluten-Free

No. of attendees: _____ @ $30.00/ea. = $ _____ total due

Remit with payment to:

Colorado Association of Funders
600 S. Cherry Street, Suite 1200
Denver, CO 80246
Tel: 303.398.7457 Fax: 303.398.7430
caf@coloradofunders.org

CAF Cancellation Policy: Payments for all CAF programs are due prior to or on the day of the program unless other arrangements have been made with the CAF office. Reservations may be cancelled up until the RSVP deadline. Once the deadline has passed and CAF gives the caterer a guaranteed number, program fees are nonrefundable and payment is due for an RSVP regardless of attendance. CAF is responsible for full payment of the guaranteed number to the caterer.

*CAF Guest Attendance Policy: In order to provide a solicitation-free environment, CAF programs are only open to members and guests of the association. Please see CAF's guest attendance policy at www.coloradofunders.org or by contacting the CAF office.